

Dr (Brig) Sankar Prasad Gorthi
DM (Neurology) FAAN (USA)

Dr (Brig) Sankar Prasad Gorthi graduated from Osmania medical college Army Hospital R&R and All India Institute of Medical Sciences. He joined Army Medical corps in 1984 and retired as Brigadier from Army Hospital R&R Delhi as Prof & HOD Department of Neurology on 30 April 2016. Subsequently he worked as HOD department of neurology Kasturba medical college hospital till Dec 2019 and is presently HOD Neurology at Bharati vidhyapeeth Medical college Hospital. He did Observer ship in Movement disorders and Neuroradiology at National Hospital for Neurology and Neurosurgery queen square London in 2004 and 2017

He was awarded ML Soni award for best resident in AIIMS and decorated with GOC-in-C and Chief of Army Staff commendation in his army carrier. His research work on NeuroAIDS received best research paper award in Indian Academy of neurology annual conference in 2001.

Contributions to neurosciences in India

1. Trained and taught over 20 DNB neurology and DM Neurology residents.
2. Joint Editor of “Parkinson’s disease from clinic to bench In India”
3. Research work: Conducted- Case series, case control studies, cohort studies and Randomized controlled trails in various topics in neurology-Neuro AIDS, Demyelinating neuropathies, Stroke, CVt and Stem Cells
4. Organizing secretary of 57th Annual Conference of Neurology Society of India held at AFMC in 2008.
5. Awarded a lifetime achievement award- 8th International prestigious Sardar Patel Award for Excellence in Neurosciences Research in 08 Feb 2014.